CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

We are looking for written and art submissions that explore the beauty and importance of diversity and inclusion in our community. We welcome all high school students to submit their creative works to be considered for publication in our May 2023 issue.

Examples of written submissions:

- Personal essays about your cultural identity
- Poetry or prose about the importance of inclusivity
- Short stories featuring diverse characters or settings
- And more!

Examples of art submissions:

- Paintings, drawings, or sketches that showcase diverse perspectives or cultures
- Photographs that celebrate the beauty of differences
- Graphic designs or illustrations that promote inclusivity
- Collages that explore the intersectionality of identities
- And more!
